

T·p·S
to·po·gra·fi·a/per·la/sto·ri·a/luoghi e percorsi
del '900

THE TRANSNATIONAL HISTORY AND MEMORY OF WORLD WAR II CRIMES IN CROATIA, BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA, SLOVENIA, AND THE NORTHERN ADRIATIC

International Conference, University of Regensburg, 12 - 14 May 2023

Venue: Leibniz-Institut für Ost- und Südosteuropaforschung (IOS Regensburg), Landshuter Str. 4, Room 319

Friday 12 May

18:00-19:30

Introduction to the conference:

Presentation of the project "Between Memory and Oblivion": Vesna Teršelič and Alice Straniero (Documenta)

Presentation of the conference: Heike Karge (University of Regensburg) and Thomas Porena (Topografia per la storia)

Moritz Mauderer (University of Regensburg): film presentation of the study visit to Koper/Trieste

Short film screening: Davor Konjikušić and Nika Petković, "Uvala" filmed in the cove of Slana, on the site of former concentration camp, 17 min.

20:30 Dinner

Saturday 13 May

09:00-11:00

Panel 1 – Forgotten places of World War Two (live and streamed)

- Keynote: Tea Perinčić (Maritime and History Museum of Croatian Littoral, Rijeka) The role of contemporary museums in mediating the past and memory

Jovan Byford (Open University): Rescuing the past from oblivion and denial: The history and memory of the killings in Sisak in early May 1945 (online)

Lejla Gačanica (researcher): Partisan Memorial Cemetery in Mostar, place of forgotten memory in Bosnia-Herzegovina (online)

Lovro Kralj (University of Rijeka) and Hrvoje Volner (University of Osijek): The History and Evolution of the Tenja Ghetto in Osijek During the Holocaust

Sanja Horvatinčić (Institute of Art History): Unravelling Memorial Landscapes: Case Studies of Drežnica and Slana (online)

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-13:00

Panel 2 – National Memory Narratives:

- Keynote: Vjeran Pavlaković (University of Rijeka): Between Oblivion and Nationalisation of War Memories: Second World War Narratives in Croatia; and

Milovan Pisarri (Centre for public history): Between Oblivion and Nationalisation of War Memories: Second World War Narratives in Serbia

Urška Strle (University of Ljubljana): In the shadow of oblivion: Slovenes in the Italian fascist camps

Tamara Pavasović Trost and Jovana Mihajlović Trbovc (University of Ljubljana): Representations of WWII in Slovenian History Textbooks

13:00-14:00 Lunch Break

14:00-16:00

Panel 3 – Local Memory Narratives

- Keynote: Borut Klabjan (Science and Research Centre Koper): Building Partisan Memory in a contested Borderland: the Northern Adriatic after World War II.

Hikmet Karčić (University of Sarajevo), Drina as a place of memory

Gašper Mithans (Science and Research Centre Koper): Village arsons in the Julian March: the specificity of commemorations and a neglected topic in historiography

Marin Pekica (University of Zagreb): Culture of Memory and Dealing with the Past – The Microhistoric Example of a village in Istria (Bokordići) (online)

Richard S.A. Newell (University of Sarajevo), The Jasenovac Monastery: analysing a new actor in WWII memory

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-18:00

Panel 4 – Memory and Visual sources

- Keynote: Elma Hodžić (Historical Museum of Bosnia-Herzegovina): The use of sources in creating collective memory through museological practice

Elena Pirazzoli (University of Cologne): Living rubble and unbearable images. Photographic and material traces of the nazi-fascist massacre in Lipa as a potentiality for transnational history and memory

Petra Maštrović, (Maritime and History Museum of Croatian Littoral, Rijeka): Memorial Centre Lipa Remembers as a place of community healing

Aneta Vladimirov (Serbian National Council): The moonlit surface of the Slana cove - an ideal place for a concentration camp and summer holidays (online)

Alessandro Matta (Sardinian Shoah Memorial Association): The “forgotten camps” of the Balkans in the cinema. Fascist and nazi “less known” camps and murder places in Yugoslavian cinema and television (1945-1992)

19:30 Dinner

Sunday 14 May

9:30-11:30

Panel 5 – Holocaust and genocide memorialisation after the war and nowadays (live and streamed)

- Keynote: Heike Karge (University of Regensburg) and Thomas Porena (Topografia per la storia): Memorialisation after 1945: theses

Đorđe Mihovilović (Jasenovac Memorial): Stara Gradiška in memorialisation after the WWII and nowadays (online)

Danilo Trbojević (University of Belgrade): (Re)living the trauma: balkanization of (Yugoslavian and Serbian) holocaust and genocide memory politics and instrumentalization of cultural and social role of (concentration camp) children-inmates

Danijel Vojak and Dunja Jakopović (University of Zagreb): Forgotten places of crimes against illegal marginals or about places of mass crimes against the Roma population in the Independent State of Croatia (online)

11:30-12:00 Coffee Break (brunch)

12:00-13:00 Conclusions